MEET THE TEAM

Paul Bogumilo
I am an insights analyst (Big 3) exploring zero-code tooling capabilities and 3D printing enthusiast. I joined Stay Home Hack to meet likeminded people in Australia, challenge myself and ship something useful for the community.

Kateryna Kasianenko
I am looking for ways to connect my passion about data analytics and coding with my experience as a researcher in news media. Originally from Ukraine, I started getting to know Australia just before the outbreak. SHH proved to be an amazing opportunity to help others, and made me feel a part of the community again.
